“Your best and only source for local sports news in Eagle Pass”

Eagle Pass Sports Central has been authorized by Eagle Pass Eagles varsity head baseball coach Reynol Mendoza to announce that for the first time in the program’s 98 year old storied history, two Eagle Pass Eagles varsity baseball players have been selected to the prestigious Texas High School Baseball Coaches Association all-state team in the same year.
Junior standout pitcher/outfielder Rey Rey Mendoza was selected to the all-state first team as an outfielder and senior shortstop Dee Andre Torres was selected to the all-state second team.
Editor’s Note: there have only been a handful of Eagle Pass Eagles varsity baseball players to have earned all-state honors by either the Texas High School Baseball Coaches Association or the Texas Sports Writers Association.
Rolando Surita (1970), Rodolfo Rodriguez (1974) and David Chisum (1988) were selected to the UIL All-State Tournament team.
I will release the names of the six players who have earned all-state honors at a later date.
Rey Rey Mendoza, Dee Andre Torres and Isaiah Zavala pitcher from Southwest who was selected to the all-state third team were the only three members from District 29-6A to earn THSBCA all-state honors.

The talented young junior Rey Rey Mendoza finished this past season with a batting average of.446 with 45 hits out of 101 times at bat with 9 doubles, 5 triples and drove in 21 runs. He also had 12 stolen bases drew 15 walks with an OBA of .551 a slugging percentage of .634 and a fielding average of .978. As a pitcher he finished with a won-loss record of 6-5 with 55 innings pitched, issued 30 walks, struck out 71 batters and had an ERA of 2.41
