

Mavericks-Corpus Christi Veterans Bi-District Football Game Preview

•Written by EPSCadmin•

••Tuesday•, 14 •November• 2017 07:20• -

MAVERICKS FOOTBALL GRIDIRON NEWS

Mavericks primed to trample the

C.C. Veterans Memorial Eagles

UIL Region IV 5A Bi-District Round

By: Conrado Perez, Jr. – Eagle Pass Sports Central

“Your best and only source for local sports news in Eagle Pass”

The C.C. Winn Mavericks varsity football team under the guidance of head football coach Eric Villasenor will be venturing into the post season for the second consecutive year this coming Friday, November 17, 2017 when they journey to Schertz, Texas to tangle with the Corpus Christi Veterans Memorial Eagles in a 7:30 PM gridiron matchup for the UIL Region IV Class 5A bi-district football crown at Lenhoff Football Stadium. The Corpus Christi Veterans Memorial Eagles will enter this game sporting an overall season record of 9-1 while the C.C. Winn Mavericks will venture into this match with an overall season record of 3-7.

The Corpus Christi Veterans Memorial Eagles employ a 70% running game and a 30% passing game. Offensively the Eagles feature a short statured starting quarterback David Soto #8 who is quite mobile and will run with the ball and does possess a strong and accurate arm. The Eagles use a pair of running backs to carry the load in Frank Jones #5 who is by far their best player is very shifty and quite explosive. The other running back is Aaron Lugo #12 a short running back that hits the hole hard and can be explosive in the open field. When the Eagles take to the airway they utilize four solid receivers with Sethe Solis #7 being their best and most explosive receiver, JP Newman #4 their second most targeted receiver who is very athletic and runs very good routes, Joshua Gomez #1 a small receiver with good hands, and Matthew Krall #25 their biggest receiver very fast off the ball and runs good routes.

Mavericks-Corpus Christi Veterans Bi-District Football Game Preview

•Written by EPSCadmin•

••Tuesday•, 14 •November• 2017 07:20• -

The Eagles offensive line will be manned by right tackle Ryan Hernandez #65, right guard Clinton Middleton #74, center Matthew Alvarez #62, left guard Viet Dimas #63 and left tackle Josh Hernandez #55.

The C.C. Winn Mavericks the Pride of Southern Maverick County will countered with their balanced offensive scheme featuring young starting signal caller Ethan Johnston who has rushed for 600 yards and tallied 9 rushing touchdowns. Joining him in the backfield will be running backs Fernando Zapata and Luis Rodriguez who share the load in carrying the ball on the ground. When the Mavericks employ their passing game they utilize the services of several very capable receivers the likes of Jose Blanco, Luis Olvera, Raul Solis, Jared Roiz and Justis Roiz. Manning the frontline for the Mavericks will be Juan Hernandez, Erik Del Bosque, Jaime Rodriguez, Miguel Nino and Sebastian Lopez.

The famed Mavericks aggressive, quick pursuing and hard hitting defense will be ready for the challenge of stopping the Eagles running and passing game. The defensive front line will be manned by Isaias Gonzalez, Ricardo Morales, Alexis Morales, Ismael Villarreal and supported by the stellar line backing duo of Miguel De Los Santos and Ernesto Villasenor. The Mavericks defensive secondary will be patrolled by Domingo Duran, Xavier Cerezo, Azael Rodriguez, German Velasquez as well as Juan J. Garcia.

Mavericks-Corpus Christi Veterans Bi-District Football Game Preview

•Written by EPSCadmin•

••Tuesday•, 14 •November• 2017 07:20• -

Eagle Pass Sports Central wishes the mighty C.C. Winn Mavericks the very best of luck against the Corpus Christi Veterans Memorial Eagles and invites the famed Mavericks Nation as well as the entire community of Eagle Pass, Texas to make the trip to Schertz, Texas on Friday Night and support the mighty Mavericks in their quest for the UIL Region IV bi-district title.

GO MAVERICKS! BEAT THE EAGLES!