The home standing Mavericks supported by the famed Maverick Nation in attendance broke into the scoring column with a lone run in the bottom of the second with Miguel Solis reaching on a one out error, Mavericks starting pitcher Jorge Robledo helped out his own cause by blasting an RBI double to drive in Miguel Solis to give the Mavericks the early 1 to 0 lead over the Coyotes.

In the bottom of the third the Mavericks tacked on what would prove to be an insurance run with Mavs shortstop Jorge Romero connecting with a one out single, Mario Galvan followed with an infield single, with two outs Mavericks starting and eventual game winning pitcher Jorge Robledo once again helped out his own cause by belting an RBI single to drive in Jorge Romero to give the Mavericks a 2 to 0 lead over the Coyotes,

The two run led to be more than enough on this night as Mavericks starting hurler Jorge Robledo was simply dominant on the mound going the distance allowing no runs, issued two base o balls and struck out 10 Coyotes batters in this game to earn the 2 to 0 victory to improve the Mavericks overall season record to 13 wins with 10 losses and one tie as well as improve their district mark to 8 wins with 4 losses.

The victorious C.C. Winn Mavericks will resume their district baseball diamond battles next Monday, April 15, 2019 when they hit the road to Castroville, Texas to tangle with the tough Medina Valley Panthers in a key 7:00 PM District 28-5A baseball game. Eagle Pass Sports Central congratulates the mighty C.C. Winn Mavericks on their well earned victory over the Uvalde Coyotes and wishes each of you continued success.
