The home standing Mavericks finally got on the board with a 32yard field goal by placekicker Almikar Ramos with 1:18 left before halftime. During the halftime festivities the culmination of a weeklong Homecoming activities took center stage with the coronation o the 2019 C.C. C. Winn High School Homecoming King and Queen and the Royal Court were announced by the Golden Voice of longtime Public Address announcer Charles “Boogie” Purcell who this time was actually present to make the announcement unlike two weeks ago when one of the local newspapers erroneously reported that Boogie Purcell made the announcement of the Eagle Pass High School King and Queen and the Royal when in fact Boogie was not even at that game.

The 2019 C.C. Winn School Duke and Duchess representing Band were Isaac Bermea and Lyzbeth Escamilla. The 2019 Prince and Princes represent Football were Alex Garcia and Ariana Soto and now the moment we all had been waiting for the 2019 C.C. Winn High School King and Queen representing Silverline were RJ Martinez and Lupita Farias.

During the halftime break the Mavericks caching staff made some adjustments that paid off defensively as the stingy Mavericks defense featuring Jose Hinojosa, Alejandro Ontiveros, Jared Roiz, Noe Castillon and Gilberto Vasquez stepped it up a notch with their intensity and aggressiveness and managed to hold the potent Southwest Dragons offense scoreless throughout the entire second half with a some bone rattling tackles and their famed relentless pursuit but the Dragons went home with the hard fought 21 to 3 victory over the valiant and proud Mavericks who never surrender no matter what. Offensively running back Ethan Johnston fell 50 yards short of joining the exclusive 1000 yard Rushing Club
