post season in 8 out of their previous 12 seasons including a current run of five straight seasons in which they have garnered a post season berth and have only had only one losing season in the history of the program.

Last year the Lady Mavericks set a new school record for most victories in a single season.

The 2019 C.C. Winn Lady Mavericks varsity softball squad will give the famed Maverick Nation a preview of coming attractions with four scheduled pre-season scrimmages on their agenda. The first of which is scheduled for Monday, January 28, 2019 when they will tangle with the cross town Eagle Pass Lady Eagles in a 7:00 PM scrimmage at the Eagle Pass ISD Student Activity Center softball field.

On Saturday, February 2, 2019 the Lady Mavericks will venture to Laredo, Texas for a quadrangular scrimmage against the Laredo Alexander Lady Bulldogs, Laredo United Lady Longhorns, and the Laredo Cigarroa Lady Toros starting at 10:00 AM.

Monday, February 4, 2019 will see the Lady Mavericks venture back to Laredo, Texas to tangle with the Laredo LBJ Lady Wolves in a 7:00 PM scrimmage. On Friday February 8, 2019 the C.C. Winn Lady Mavericks will conclude their respective four scrimmages by entertaining the Pearsall Lady Mavericks in a 7:00 PM scrimmage at the Eagle Pass ISD Student Activity Center softball field.

The highly talented, potent and youthful C.C. Winn Lady Mavericks varsity softball team will then kickoff their 2019 regular season campaign on Tuesday, February 12, 2019 when they host the always tough Laredo United Lady Longhorns out of District 29-6A in a 7:00 PM non-district season opening matchup at the Eagle Pass ISD Student Activity Center softball field.

The 2019 C.C. Winn Lady Mavericks bring back plenty of experience with all but one returning starter from last year's record winning season losing only 3rd baseman Daniela Rodriguez. The C.C. Winn Lady Mavericks will showcase a potent heavy hitting line up, full of power and experience with Ariana Soto, Briana Soto and Martha Garcia expected to provide the long ball. Defensively the Lady Mavericks will be solid both in the infield and in the outfield. On the base paths the Lady Mavericks will be quite aggressive with their overall speed.

The C.C. Winn Lady Mavericks will enjoy the luxury of having possibly four quality pitchers with veterans Amy Flores and Angie Escamilla handling the majority of the pitching chores along with Alexia Gutierrez and Ariana Soto.

Behind the plate ready to handle the all important catching chores will be the talented Briana Soto and Mia Uriegas.

Infielders will include a very reliable corps featuring Thiana Reyes, Anissa Salazar, Ana Lopez, Kaytlyn Amaya, Ariana Soto, Amy Flores and Angie Escamilla which all can play multiple spots.

Outfielders will include a solid unit composed by Alexia Gutierrez, Kayla Sifuentes, Martha Garcia and Kiana Diaz.

Coaching thoughts on upcoming season: This year's team has an opportunity to win a lot of games and compete at a high level every week. Consistency at every position will determine starting roles and role players for the season. We will have to play clean and unselfish fundamentally sound softball to win. It is exciting to see how this team will compete in this new and tough district. Our goal is to win district and make a deep run in the playoff all the way to the state tournament.

Eagle Pass Sports Central wishes the mighty 2019 C.C. Winn Lady Mavericks varsity girls softball team the very best of luck this season and invite the famed Maverick Nation as well as the entire community of Eagle Pass, Texas to come out and support the Lady Mavericks in their quest to capture the 2019 District 28-5A softball title, GO LADY MAVERICKS!
