For the second consecutive district baseball game a C.C. Winn Mavericks starting pitcher has etched his name in the all-time local athletic history book as Jorge Robledo hurled a No-Hitter on Friday, March 8, 2019 against the San Antonio Southside Cardinals at the Eagle Pass ISD Student Activity Center Polo Moncada baseball field in front of the famed Maverick Nation in attendance.

This marks the very first that teammates (Brandon Villasenor & Jorge Robledo) hurl back to back No-Hitters. Jorge Robledo tossed five complete innings of work on the mound allowed no runs on no hits walked only one batter and recorded 9 strikeouts on the night to earn the 10 to 0 victory and etch his name in the exclusive No-Hit Club becoming just the third ever Mavericks
