Coming off a very tough Spring Break schedule, the Eagle Pass Eagles varsity baseball squad under the guidance of head coach Reynol Mendoza returned home to tangle with the San Antonio Cornerstone Warriors in a 7:00 PM non-district baseball diamond encounter at the Eagle Pass ISD Student Activity Center Polo Moncada Baseball Field.

The visiting Cornerstone Warriors ventured into this game on a seven game losing streak while the home standing Eagles came in with a two game losing streak. The Eagles got stellar pitching performance from starting and game winning hurler Edward Mendoza who went five complete inning on the mound allowing no runs scattered two harmless base hits issued two bases on balls and struck out 11 batters as well as from reliever Sergio Lopez who tossed a scoreless sixth allowing one base hit, hit one batter and struck out two batters and Isaac Heredia who retired the side in order in the top of the seventh striking out two out of the three
